Distance from Nizamuddin to Gurgaon (IFFCO Chowk) is 27.4 KM. There is no direct bus from Nizamuddin (if you are coming from Nizamuddin Railway station). You can catch a bus from Nizamuddin to Lajpat Nagar (which shouldn't be a problem, there are a number of buses available) which will cost you Rs.5.

Alternatively you can also hire an auto till Lajpat Nagar which will be around Rs.20-30. From Lajpat Nagar you can take any of the Mudrika bus services which are frequently available (every bus comes in within 5 minutes) till Dhaulta Kuan (A.R.S.D college stop) cost will be Rs.10 for bus fare.

After alighting at Dhaulta Kuan (A.R.S.D college stop) move over to the Gurgaon side which is a short walk of 5 minutes. From there you can catch any of the buses readily available to Gurgaon (IFFCO Chowk) cost of bus fare Rs.15.

Or by cab: Nizamuddin Railway Station (Nizamuddin RS) (0.0 km) > DR ZAKIR HUSSAIN MARG (1.7 km) > PRITHVIRAJ ROAD (4.4 km) > SHANTI PATH (7.2 km) > MOTI BAGH SOUTH on right (9.9 km) > RAO TULA RAM MARG (11.4 km) > ASMARA LINES on right (14.3 km) > DIVYA COMPLEX on left (18.3 km) > DEEPAK FARM on left (20.6 km) > GULMOHAR MARG (23.4 km) > IFFCO Chowk (27.4 km)

Delhi autos do not go to Gurgaon. If you can spend some more money then taking an interstate taxi from New Delhi Railway Station is best option. There are of course buses from Karol Bagh, Delhi Gate and ISBT, but for that you will have to take an auto to reach there.

are you sure autos ply between delhi and gurgaon? i do not think so.. if u take an auto, they may leave you at the border.. what would be better is to call any cab to the station to pick you up about half an hour to 40 mins before you reach the destination. Dial 011-41414141/42424242/43434343... that is what i generally do.. or you may need to haggle with the private taxivalas at the station on arrival. gurgaon being in haryana, autos do not ply from delhi to there as that would become inter-state...
